-: O :-

In the reference 10th & 11th cited, orders were issued duly enhancing the age of superannuation to the employees of APGENCO with retrospective effect from 02.06.2014 and also issued addendum to Service Regulations as contemplated in G.O. 7th cited.

02). In reference 12th cited, certain instructions were issued for re-induction of retired employees consequent to issuance of G.O.Os 10th & 11th read above. One of the said conditions is that the retired employees shall have to remit back the pensionary benefits together with the interest thereon for which a cut off date of 30.09.2017 was fixed for remittance of benefits and the notices were issued to the concerned. Accordingly, re-induction orders were issued to those who have remitted their pensionary benefits before 30.09.2017.

03). In the Memo 13th cited, orders have been extending the period of remittance of pensionary benefits upto 31.10.2017.

04). The Employee Unions/Associations and the individual retired personnel have further persistently requested to re-induct the employees who retired at the age of 58 years without remittance of the pensionary benefits already taken.

05). The issue was discussed in the 157th APGENCO Board meeting held on 13.12.2017 and resolved to issue the further orders with reference to the memo 12th cited.

06). After careful consideration of the said requested, APGENCO in continuation of the orders issued vide Memo.13th & 14th cited, hereby issues the following further orders.

Contd...02

- a. If the employee, who retire at the age of 58 years and who is unable to remit back the said terminal benefits, he/she need not remit the same (except Retirement Gratuity) but on his/her re-induction he/she shall pay the interest @ 9% per annum on the amounts received towards terminal benefits, during his/her future tenure (i.e., for the period from the date of re-induction to the date of retirement at 60 years) and if the said interest amount is not paid, such interest amount shall be deducted from his/her monthly salary.
- b. Retirement Gratuity is a sum payable as a reward to an employee at the end of a period of employment for the satisfactory & disciplined services rendered with devotion, integrity as per the prevailing rules and regulations. To ensure satisfactory and disciplined performance from the employee to be re-inducted for the rest of his/her service, he/she shall remit the retirement gratuity already paid at the time of their retirement on attaining the age of 58 years, before their re-induction due to extension of retirement age.
- c. The above benefits will also be applicable to the employees who were already re-inducted into service in accordance with the orders issued vide memo. 12th read above.
- d. Further those who have already surrendered the earned leave at the time of retirement at the age of 58 years and not remitted back the terminal benefits to the department, at any point of time after their re-induction, their Earned Leave account shall not be less than the number of days of E.L. which they have surrendered at the time of retirement at the age of 58 years.
- e. Since the enhancement of age is considered from 02.06.2014, the pension of the pensioners who have completed 60 years as on date of issue of these orders may be re-fixed by allowing notional annual grade increments. The period may be reckoned for seniority, promotions, Automatic Advancement scheme. The monetary benefit shall be paid from the date of attaining the age of 60 years.
- f. All the above terms including the payment of wages for the period during out of employment of APGENCO and charging of interest on terminal benefits from the date of receiving terminal benefits till the date of re-induction shall be subject to the Government orders, if any, that may be passed in this regard.
- g. At the time of re-induction, the retired employee shall give an under taking accepting the above conditions.
- h. The option for re-induction without remitting the retirement benefits, except Retirement Gratuity on or before 31.01.2018.
- j. The pensioners shall give an undertaking accepting the conditions whose pension has to be re-fixed by allowing notional annual grade increments.

07). These orders are also available on APGENCO website and can be accessed at the address <http://www.apgenco.gov.in>.
