Memo. No.JS(Per)/DS(Ser.)/AS(R&P)/PO-J/19/2026,

Dtd:14.07.2026

Sub: APGENCO – Medical - Temporary Suspension of Cashless Facility under Group Medclaim Policy (GMC) TATAAIG General Insurance Company Limited (the GMC insurer) has suspended the cashless facility at select major network hospitals effective from the midnight of 1st July 2026 - Reg.

Ref: Mail received from TATA AIG General Insurance Company, dtd:14.07.2026

* * *

In the reference cited, it is to inform that M/s.TATA AIG General Insurance Company identified that certain hospitals were charging treatment costs significantly higher than the standard package rates applicable under standard Group Health Insurance schemes.

2. Hence, to ensure long-term policy sustainability and protect the collective benefits of all Power Utility employees/pensioners/family pensioners the insurance company sent communication to such hospitals to give concern to operate under the proposed standard packages rates. While some major entities (like Care Hospital) have agreed to the sustainable standard package rates, others have not yet confirmed their concurrence.

3) Therefore, the cashless facility currently existing is put on hold Until further notice against the following hospital w.e.f.01.07.2026:

- Apollo Hospitals
- KIMS Hospitals
- Medi cover Hospitals
- Yashoda Hospitals
- Ayush NRI Hospital

3. However, any claims arising from treatment at the above hospitals during this period shall be processed on a reimbursement basis subject to the approved standards structure and policy terms and conditions.

4. In view of the above, all the Station//Functional Heads of APGENCO are requested to circulate this intimation to among all Employees/Pensioners/Family Pensioners, within their jurisdiction to prevent any financial surprise or inconvenience during a medical emergency and to see all employees/pensioners to utilize other empaneled hospitals where the cashless facility remains fully operational. (or) to availed medical reimbursement if they still choose to take treatment at the above hospitals. Any updated in this matter will be communicated.
